Part I: Arts and Humanities

1. Citing specific examples discuss the differences between Mannerist art and High Renaissance art.

2. Citing specific examples discuss the “new order” of Baroque art.

Part II: Social Sciences

1. Discuss the concepts of sovereignty, law, and the state advanced by Bodin, James I and Grotius.

2. Explain the concept of the “social contract” and show how this concept was developed by Hobbes and modified by Locke.

Part III: Natural Sciences

1. Explain the key features of the transition from geocentrism to heliocentrism in the 16th and 17th centuries.

2. Explain the key features of the transition from the Aristotelian world view to the Newtonian world view.